

CURTIS IS OPPOSED TO REPEAL SCIENTIST SOARS TEN MILES INTO SKY

PROF. PICCARD IN SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT INTO STRATOSPHERE

REACHES HIGHEST POINT EVER BEFORE REACHED BY MAN; DESCENDS SAFELY

CAVALLARO DI MONZ-
ANRANO, Italy, Aug. 18.—

(P)—Prof. Auguste Piccard, back from his second balloon ascension to the stratosphere, disclosed this afternoon that he had gone deeper into the sky than any man has ever gone before.

"I went up 16,700 meters," he said, "that's a world's record."

The scientist and his young assistant, Max Cosyns, smiled broadly as they stepped out of the minimum sphere when their balloon landed, but Prof. Piccard couldn't stand erect after 12 hours in the air. He lay down and only the crowd pressing around him prevented his falling. He placed an arm on the shoulder of the man near him to steady himself.

"It's the difference between the intense cold up there and the intense heat down here," he explained.

"It was below zero up there," he said.

Prof. Piccard's ascension to the stratosphere last year took him up 15,781 meters, a mark which was officially accepted by the Aero Club of Switzerland.

That is equivalent to 51,755 feet. The new mark is 54,773 feet.

BOLO, Italy, Aug. 18.—(P)—Prof. Piccard's second balloon excursion into the stratosphere ended this evening at five o'clock when he brought his balloon down here after twelve hours in the upper atmosphere.

Edoardo lies in the Camonica valley, 25 miles from Brescia, about half way between Milan and Verona.

The gondola bumped to a landing in a field on the outskirts of this little town whose entire population of 2,500 turned out to welcome the adventure.

There was practically no wind and the balloon came down easily. The bushy-haired little scientist and his young assistant, Max Cosyns, stepped out of the aluminum sphere smiling broadly.

"Well," said Prof. Piccard, "that

NO SUSPICION OF ILLEGAL VOTING IN OPENING PRIMARY

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HEAD-QUARTERS SO STATES

"The Navarro county democratic executive committee has no suspicion of any illegal voting in the first primary election, Aug. 23," it was announced at the headquarters of the committee Thursday.

Each of the executive committees are preparing the boxes for the forty-eight voting precincts for the second primary election which will be held, Saturday, Aug. 27. Indications are that another record vote will be cast.

Interest in the run-off primary election is being maintained by the voters of Navarro county during the hotly contested gubernatorial and district judge races. The Ferguson forces, led by John R. Cunningham, manager, and the Sterling adherents, directed by J. S. Murkin and Guy M. Gibson, county chairman and vice county chairman, respectively, are making an active campaign in Navarro county in an effort to swing the county into their favorite's hands. There were 2,500 Tom Hun-

SERIOUS TROUBLE FEARED IN ILLINOIS GOAL FIELD AREAS

CHRISTIAN COUNTY OFFI-CIALS REMOVE BARRICADES
AND PERMIT FREE TRAFFIC

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Aug. 18.—

(P)—Christian county officials to- day removed barricades and deputy sheriffs had blocked all roads leading into the county. Their action cleared the way for entrance of dissatisfied union min- ers, who had threatened to march upon the Busy Bee mines from Springfield.

Sheriff Charles Wienke barred the roads last week to prevent in- terference with miners who wished to work at the new lower wage scale. He told his deputies to stand aside and return to their homes in readiness for instant duty if trouble developed.

He indicated he would arrest any trouble makers. Union pickets in other counties had persuaded some of their fellow members to desert their picks and drills and broke at the peace agreement declared in effect one week ago.

Trouble developed shortly after dawn at Toronto, five miles south of Springfield. About 150 dissen- ting miners climbed aboard a train and broke up the train at Glen- arm, a few miles further south. The cars were en route to Chris- tian county to take out coal min- ing under the new agreement.

Three of the four mines of the Peabody Coal Company, largest producers in Christian county, were functioning today.

HOOVER BOOSTER IN 1928 CHARGES HE SURRENDERED TO ANTI-PROHIBITION CROWD

GENEVA, Aug. 18.—(P)—Pres- ident Hoover was charged today by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, with having surrendered "to the speakies, bootleggers and the lawless elements of the underworld" in his speech of acceptance.

"The outstanding, indeed the overshadowing, part of Hoover's prohibition statement," he said in his criticism, "is the startling declaration by a pres- ident of the United States of the helplessness of his administra- tion in its warfare against law- lessness, in its efforts to control what Hoover proclaimed the in- tolerable speakies and boot- legging and to prevent 'practical' nullification of the constitution."

"But is not the President him- self responsible for his administra- tion's helplessness as he now so suddenly declares in the very face of that most significant and encouraging official statement recently submitted to congress that consumption of intoxicants had diminished over 60 per cent since 1914?"

Had President Hoover in March, 1929, declared his purpose to en- force vigorously and efficiently the Volstead act and asked con- gress to furnish whatever men and money were necessary, con-

JIMMY MOLLISON HOPS OFF EARLY THURSDAY MORNING

WILL ATTEMPT FLIGHT TO NEW YORK AND THEN
RIGHT BACK TO IRELAND

PORTMARNOCK, Irish Free State, Aug. 18.—(P)—J. A. Mollison, noted British distance flier, took off from here at 11:35 a. m. (4:35 a. m. central stand- ard time) on a transatlantic flight to the United States.

He planned to make his first stop at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, and after refueling, to dash on immediately to Roosevelt Field, Long Island. Then his schedule called for a dash back without a stop to Croydon, England.

Should Mollison succeed it would be the first transatlantic solo flight from east to west and the first North Atlantic crossing in a light airplane.

A big crowd assembled on Port- marnock strand to witness the take-off. It cheered Mollison when he arrived by plane from Baldon- aird aerodrome, Dublin.

Amy Johnson, noted British flier recently married to Mollison, drove here in an automobile.

Mollison said weather conditions were better than he had ever ex- pected, with light westerly winds prevailing to the middle of the Atlantic and from there on a ten- dency to easterly winds which would be in his favor. Very little fog was reported.

Mollison's tiny plane, "The Heart's Content," weighing little more than a ton, is similar to the one the Prince of Wales uses for sport and to those used by other British amateur fliers who skip across the English channel for pleasure.

He said he hoped his round trip across the Atlantic would not re- quire more than 24-25 days. Heart's Content, New Foundland, would be the first landmark in North America Mollison would pass over if he held the course charted.

Minister Held Without Bail In Poisoning Case

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 18.—

(P)—The Rev. S. A. Berry, charged with murder in the con- nection with the alleged poison- ing of his first wife, was ordered held without bail today following a habeas corpus hearing before Judge Enloe V. Vernon.

The minister, who appeared in court during the hearing with his pretty 19-year-old bride, made no comment when Judge Vernon announced his decision.

James Babb, prosecutor named by Governor Murray, made a spectacular argument in closing for the state.

Mr. Babb had sought release on the ground the alleged crime had not been proved. His at- torneys charged the minister was being "persecuted."

The 52-year-old pastor, his gray hair no longer covered with gray which he has used to blacken it, was taken back to jail.

VON PAPEPN PLANS TO TEST STRENGTH OF ORPOSITION; CABINET TO FACE REICHSTAG

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—(P)—Chanc- ellor Franz von Papen, pitted against Adolf Hitler's National Socialist party will take his cabinet before the new Reichstag today to test the strength of the opposition.

An official announcement today put at rest persistent reports that the Von Papen government in- tended to avoid the possibility of a no-confidence vote.

He said yesterday he was con- fident an appeal to the common sense of the Reichstag's parties would be successful because there was no government more closely than the present one. If there was a vote of no-confidence, however, he said the cabinet would govern in ac- cordance with the situation.

The chancellor would be used promptly to block any attempt by Adolf Hitler to use his National Socialism to seize the government. He said today from Chancellor von Papen.

The chancellor added he expected his government to remain in power "a long time."

The warning was given in an interview last night in which von Papen reiterated Germany's demand for equality in armaments with other nations, declaring he would not let Germany be treated as a second class power.

With reference to Hitler and the storm troops, however, he said he had received assurance from the Nazi leader the troops would not be used for any attempt at a coup d'etat.

"Germany has no desire nor in- tention to arm," he said "but she does want other nations to keep their promises to disarm."

The German people, he added, are now united more closely than ever behind "their supreme lead- er, the Field Marshal (Von Hindenburg) and are full of confi- dence in his wise leadership."

STERLING PLANS SUBMIT SUBJECT OF TAX PENALTY

GOVERNOR TO INCLUDE THIS FEATURE OF TAX RELIEF
IN SPECIAL CALL

DALLAS, Aug. 18.—(P)—Gov- ernor R. S. Sterling said here today he would submit to a special session of the legislature, a pro- posal for which was expected to be announced soon, the ques- tion of extending the time limit for payment of delinquent taxes without penalty and interest.

Previously the governor had said in a campaign address that he intended to call the legisla- ture into session shortly after September 1 to consider a pro- posal to refund to counties a part of the gasoline tax to retire county highway bonds.

In explaining the latest sub- ject, he said such action would

COURT ORDER IS ISSUED STOPPING WALKER RULING

GOV. ROOSEVELT SERVED
WITH RESTRAINING ORDER
THURSDAY MORNING

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 18. (P)—While John J. Curtin, chief counsel for Mayor Walker, argued before Gov- ernor Roosevelt today for the dismissal of ouster charges, co-counsel obtained from Kingston supreme court justice an order restraining the governor from passing upon the mayor's fitness until after the court heard arguments on the legality of the proceedings.

Neither the order issued today nor a previous one obtained by George Donnelly, secretary of the Bronx Chamber of Commerce would hold up the removal hearing, the governor's legal counsel said.

John J. Bennett, Jr., attorney general, will appear before Su- preme Court Justice Ellis J. Sta- ley tomorrow as "a friend of the court" and not as Mr. Roosevelt's representative. Bennett said he would point out the curb was without jurisdiction to intervene in the executive duties of the gov- ernor.

Both the Walker order and the Donnelly order come before Jus- tice Stailey at a special term of the supreme court tomorrow.

As the afternoon session of the Walker hearing opened it was un- derstood legal aids to Roosevelt would suggest to Curtin that ar- guments on the court order be continued until next week.

Robber Shot to Death Ft. Worth Early Thursday

FORT WORTH, Aug. 18.—(P)—A street car robber, shot to death early today by Patrolman Charles Carmichael, was identified as a four times ex-convict with a re- ward hanging over his head.

Finger prints and photographs found in the police department's Bertillon bureau identified the robber as Alfred Howe, 48, alias Alfred Howell, alias Alfred Young, alias Alfred Benson, alias James V. Reed.

His criminal record includes two penitentiary terms at Folsom prison and one at San Quentin, California, and one at Leavenworth, Kansas, for armed robbery, and jail sentences at San Francisco and Denver.

A reward of $50 had been offered for his capture in connection with the holdup of the State theater in Martinez, Calif., on September 28, 1930, in which a robber bound and gagged an at- tendant after forcing him to open the safe.

RELIEF AGENCIES ARE SETTLING TO WORK STORM AREA

SANITATION AND DISEASE CONTROL ARE THE FIRST
PROBLEMS FOR ATTACK

HOUSTON, Aug. 18.—(P)—The hurricane area of Texas, where 39 died, today slowly was being rehabilitated.

By Saturday's storm reconstruction was under way.

Red Cross relief stations in Ang- leton, Freeport and West Colum- bia, where the storm's destruction was almost complete, reported the problem of emergency relief well in hand. To Brazoria, where citi- zens previously had reported the populace "desperately hungry," Red Cross representatives carried addi- tional food supplies.

For the homeless upwards of 2,000 tents from a division of Texas national guard which had been camped at Palacios, from Fort Crockett at Galveston and from a sulphur company whose mines are in the storm section, were set up.

The debris was being cleared away and workmen were busy re- building business houses and homes.

ROOSEVELT WILL PRESENT PLAN TO ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

SPEAKER GARNER SO IN-FORMED CINCINNATI DEMO-CRATS EN ROUTE HOME

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 18.—(P)—John Garner of Texas, demo- cratic candidate for the vice- presidency, told Cincinnati demo- crats today that Governor Roose- velt of New York, the party pres- idential choice, would offer a new plan for economic relief during the campaign.

The Texan came here en route to his home state. Arriving by train, he left by plane for San Antonio.

He elaborated on his statement only to say that the Garner re- lief bill, which President Hoover described as "work barrel" legis- lation, would not be made a cam- paign issue.

So confident is he of demo- cratic success at the polls, he said that "if I had my way I'd go to Texas and stay there until after the election."

PLANS TO UNITE TWO OF NEWEST POLITICAL PARTIES UNDER ONE BANNER FAILURE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—(P)—East- ern and West still were twain today as the "Blue Shirt" followers of the Rev. James R. Cox, Catholic priest of Pittsburgh, charged the problem of emergency relief well in hand. To Brazoria, where citi- zens previously had reported the populace "desperately hungry," Red Cross representatives carried addi- tional food supplies.

Meanwhile it appeared likely the list of the dead would not in- crease as isolated sections, where loss of life had been feared, had been reached.

HOOVER MATE IS OPPOSED TO REPEAL 18TH AMENDMENT

VICE PRESIDENT CURTIS AC-CEPTS VICE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

TOPEKA, Aug. 18.—(P)—Voicing his personal op- position to repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and expressing confidence in eventual success of adminis- tration efforts to bring relief from the depression, Vice President Curtis late today accepted the renomination by the republicans.

The Kansan, in his formal ad- dress of acceptance, said he felt the people "should at all times be given full opportunity to express their opinion on the Constitution or amendments thereto" but that personally "I am opposed to the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

Mr. Curtis made no mention in his prepared address of President Hoover's proposal for a change in prohibition under which each state would be given the right to deal with the problem as it may determine, subject to federal con- stitutional guarantees to protect against interference by their neighbors with the return of the saloon system.

The republican platform, he said, recognizes that the people should have full opportunity for expression of their will on the question of amending the Consti- tution "and makes no distinction as to the republicanism of the members of the party because of their stand on prohibition."

After expressing his opposition of the distinction conferred upon him in being the second man to be renominated by his party to the vice presidency, Mr. Cur- tis discussed one by one the prob- lem of immigration, the farm prob- lem, proposals for governmental economies, women's part in gov- ernment, labor of the depression, efforts to conquer the depression.

Proud of Economic Aid. He said after comparing "how little" was done by national ad- ministration in power at the time of his first term, "I am proud of what has been done by the present administration to bring relief 'we are justly proud of."

CURTIS FORMALLY NOTIFIED OF HIS NOMINATION TODAY

SIMPLE CEREMONY WAS
SHORN CUSTOMARY FRILLS
AT TOPEKA THURSDAY

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 18.—(P)—Senator L. J. Dickinson of Iowa today formally notified Vice Pres- ident Charles Curtis of his renom- ination on the Republican ticket, paying tribute to him as fitted for the post in view of the "splen- did dedication of his life to pub- lic service."

After briefly reviewing the prob- lems faced by the executive and legislative branches of the gov- ernment, the economic chal- lenge of the day, "I discussed the delegates to the Republican convention 'with due regard for the variance in views as to party principles, all were of one mind or the personnel of our ticket for the campaign of 1932.'"

He praised the vice president as one "fixed in the fundamentals of government, one who knows the interests of our people of this valley, one who has an abiding faith in our open spaces," and "one who has a firm grasp on our tribulations."

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 18.—(P)—Vice President Charles Curtis reached today the starting point for his 1932 campaign for re- nomination—formal notification of the public party for the second time had chosen him as President's co-standard bearer.

In a simple ceremony shorn of customary frills at his ex- press home, he received a formal notice of his re-nomination. He propounded his views on the economic situation, farm problem and other campaign.

Party leaders from all over the country as well as his Kansas constituents, 35 years he represented congress, assembled here for the ceremony, opening at 3 o'clock (Standard time) of the day.

There, in a brief speech, he received word of his re-nomination. He was the first of his party to be re-nominated.

Solemn And Sovereign Presence

Guaranteed Good For People

As With Ancient Israel, So With Modern World, Regard For That Presence Essential to Prosperity — How Times Are Learning Values

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS
These would be great days to lift the roofs of all homes in order to peer in at home people as they behave, and to hear what they are saying. The big thing that is happening nowadays is not in public life—in business or in politics—but in the lives of individuals and women. The poor people are looking for the light of the Depression in the stock market reports. What is the effect upon the lives of human beings that is the true criterion of the times?

Perhaps we shall eventually discover that the hard times have been worth all they cost in the things they have brought about. We are sloughing off, as a snake sheds its outworn skin, the old ideas of what things were worth while. Money, we now perceive, is not the principal possession, now tragically it has failed individuals and the world in this crisis! The ownership of automobiles and tiled floors and fine and fashionable clothes is the mark of the old life. In losing them, the many persons have found their own souls. "Social position" is a faded word. The only thing there is no really "good" society except the society of good people, interested in the same subjects, and animated by the same high ideals.

Old Man Depression's Boons
As a revealer of essential values, Old Man Depression has wrought wonders. He has taught families that a brother is born for following, and so welds folk into interdependent groups that have been the shining glory of these hard times. A Toronto newspaper, the Court of Domestic Relations, told me the other day what I had already learned from many other sources, that this crisis is drawing families together and revealing qualities of loyalty, forbearance and appreciation that were not brought out in prosperous days. Home life is coming again to the fore. The simpler joys of the fireside are being revived. The revered spirit of flush times, with its pursuit of motion pictures and other forms of paid entertainment, has given way to a calmer, quieter enjoyment of the pastimes and interests which for millennium have been the stay of the race. Old Man Depression has revealed the relations of people with people as the real thing, with its stimulations of life. The old-fashioned loyalties have come again into their own. More, these hard times have done, than being revived. The midst of the present lesson. They have shown up that the trust satisfactions of life are related to God. We have been trying to get home without God, and to put Him off in an obscure theological or philosophical niche where He could be substantially discarded. Diving to the efforts of the modern "cracking" writers, and immature, second-string college professors, a cynical attitude toward God and the future has been the result. Materialism is growing to be life's supreme satisfaction. The old-fashioned loyalties have been crushed. Materialism is the one thing that the present era. Mere things have crumbled under the feet of society. Even the greatest fortunes have disappeared almost overnight. All that the men of the world have been able to do is to turn again to the reality of the living God, Who is Himself humanity's deepest satisfaction.

Reunion of Tramel Family at Bazette. On Last Friday

BAZETTE, Aug. 18.—(Sp.)—A reunion of the W. G. Tramel Sr. family of Bazette was held Friday, Aug. 12, at Horsehead bend on the Trinity river, with about 75 present. The reunion is an annual affair which has been held for many years. The family of W. G. Tramel Sr. was 68 years of age. He has been a resident of Texas for 38 years, and has lived around Bazette most of the time. Relatives and friends of the family began to arrive at the designated place at an early hour. Many enjoyed themselves, some fishing, some swimming and others talking of days gone by, till the noon hour. Then a most delectable picnic dinner was served, which consisted of chicken, fish, salads, pickles, and other dishes of all kinds and ice tea and coffee. After the noon hour, swimming was the event of the afternoon. Everyone stayed until a late hour, and all returned to their homes after enjoying the day very much, and wishing Mr. Tramel many more birthdays.

The youthful collar with scalloped edges that so cleverly works into the diagonal bodice, giving it becomingly to the Junior Miss and will surely please her. The same detail is repeated on the drop shoulder which the skirt is simply flared in keeping with the moulded bodice. Here a gay cotton print with a white collar would be most attractive.

Miss Elizabeth Harper Married To Morey Miller Saturday In Ceremony Performed In Ft. Worth

Miss Elizabeth Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper, of this city, and J. Morey Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper, of Abilene, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper, of Abilene, were married Saturday in Ft. Worth by Rev. A. W. Hall, pastor of the First Methodist church of that city. This marriage is the culmination of a pretty romance, which began in high school here in Corsicana and continued for five years or more. Miss Harper is a graduate of the Temple High school class of 1928, having moved there. She also graduated from the Temple Junior college with honors and has taught expression in the school since finishing school. The following announcements have been received this week by Corsicana friends:

"Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harper announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. J. Morey Miller, Saturday, August thirteenth, Nineteen Hundred thirty-two, Fort Worth, Texas. At home, 1709 Chestnut Street, Abilene."

Miss Harper's engagement to Mr. Miller was announced in Temple, her former home, on Thursday, July 28, at a pretty bridge party given by Miss Currie Mitchell and Miss Beatrice Young at the former's home, 501 North Ninth Street. Bridge was played in the morning hours on the broad porch which was attractively decorated with zinnias and daisies. Tallies and other table appointments were in fish design, white and green being the predominating colors. At 12 o'clock luncheon was served at the game tables on the porch on decorated trays. The guests were asked into the dining room for the serving of the dessert course. The white lace cloth over green had an attractive scene for its centerpiece. A large fish bowl had been buried in sand and had a border of fern and flowers. Celluloid figures were lounging on the sand, while one pair, a boy and a girl in bathing suits were poised on the brink of the pool. Written across the figures was the announcement.

The many friends and acquaintances of Dr. Rice Knox of Frost, uncle of Mrs. J. M. Tullio of this city, will be delighted to learn that he is recovering nicely from a fractured hip that he sustained some seven weeks ago. Dr. Knox is in his 80th year and his recovery has been remarkable.

COTTON PRICES BETTER NOW THAN WERE LAST YEAR

A comparison of prices paid for cotton in Corsicana for the past three years with the price paid today will give an idea of the trend of financial conditions. On August 17 last year cotton sold for 6.45 here and was gradually going down. Today cotton sold for 7.20 and has been steadily advancing for the past two weeks. Cotton seed prices in 1931 and this year were $16.00 and $10.00 respectively. Seed prices were also on the decline at this time last year. No change has been made in seed prices since the opening of the season this year. On August 17, 1932 cotton was bringing 17.85 and seed $28.00 per ton and on the same date in 1930 the prices were 10.50 and $25.00.

Really Rained Frogs Recently at Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 16.—(AP)—It rained frogs in Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Sexton, who had been on a rabbit hunt near town, skidded into a ditch at the roadside during a thunder shower. What they first thought to be half falling turned out to be small frogs.

E. M. Ballenger gathered up a small sack full of the amphibians from the street in front of his residence and exhibited them in the business district.

SECOND SON BORN TUESDAY TO COL. AND MRS. LINDBERGH AT MORROW HOME ENGLEWOOD

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Aug. 18.—(P)—A son was born to Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh at 6:30 a. m., Eastern Standard Time today.

The child, the second son of the Lindberghs, was born at the Morrow home after five months and sixteen days after the first baby was kidnapped from the Lindbergh home in Hopewell, N. J.

The Lindberghs' first baby was twenty months old when he was kidnapped and would have been a little more than two years old now if he had lived. His body was found near the Lindbergh home, after a world wide search and officials believed he had been killed by the kidnapers, perhaps at night.

The fact that Mrs. Lindbergh was expecting a second child became generally known only after the first son, Charles, Jr., was kidnapped. She was under constant medical care during the long search for the baby and his kidnapers, and had been in constant medical supervision.

Mrs. Lindbergh was attended while awaiting birth of her second child by Dr. Edward Hawkes, the specialist who attended her at the birth of her first child. Dr. Hawkes was in frequent consultation in the case also with Dr. Edward H. Dennen and three other specialists.

Col. Lindbergh lately has sought to occupy his mind by turning once more to business affairs and has spent much time daily at his office on lower Broadway and in the offices of Pan-American Airways in the Grand Central district, an international air line company of which he is technical director. Only yesterday he made a short test flight at Newark airport of a new type of plane.

As the day wore on there was complete silence concerning the baby and his mother from the Morrow home and from the office of Dr. Edward Hawkes, the specialist who has attended Mrs. Lindbergh for both her children.

At the Morrow's Charles Springer, secretary to the late Senator Morrow, said he could make no comment and did not know where Col. Lindbergh was.

At the doctor's office a secretary declined to call him to the telephone, said he had spoken to no one about the case and denied published reports attributed to the office in which assistants to the doctor were quoted as saying mother and child were doing well.

noon, Mrs. Collins is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Russell, near Barry.

Mrs. B. F. Payne has as her guests this week her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Madoie, of New Orleans, La.

G. G. Owen and O. L. Elkins were Trinidad visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sharpley are entertaining a brand new son, who came to make his home with them Friday, Aug. 12. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

The Baptist meeting continues this week with large crowds attending the night services. Rev. J. M. Stanley, the pastor, is in charge, with Mr. Grayson leading the singing. Everyone in the community is urged to come and hear the good sermons and help in making the meeting a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Patman, who have charge of the telephone exchange, have moved to Dallas. They left Monday. Mrs. Tucker will take their place. George Dixon is back on the job as line-man.

THE CHALLENGE TO YOUTH.

A good deal has been said about the dissatisfaction of youth with a world suffering from the mistakes of their elders, and handed down to them to live and work in. It was these elders who brought on the war, and who have been unable to escape from the war's consequences and it is youth that is being stifled and oppressed as the result. Therefore, says youth, since the older generation has made a mess of things, let it turn the world over to us. "We are not afraid. The world does not seem so perfect that we should fear to change it."

There are plenty of older men in responsible positions who would gladly surrender their troubles to youth, if younger men held the solution of the problems. But first one would like to see what constructive plans youth has evolved to deal with the situation. Take, for example, one single matter—the nomination of more capable men for public office. Surely control of the government is an important factor in any program youth may have for remaking the nation. But as we look over the field, we find the same men being nominated and elected to Congress, who were there a decade, two decades ago; or, if not the same individuals, then men holding the same political and social ideas of their predecessors. Young men have gone to congress, men who fought in the war; what plans have they furnished, what great social and political changes have they advocated? In what way are they different from their elders?

The challenge to the young men of the country is this: Produce a remedy for our troubles. Come forward with a plan, and show how it can be carried out. To blame an older generation, to complain of a heritage, is merely to be a sorehead. What has youth to offer? If it has a good and workable program, why does it not get busy, instead of merely uttering complaints?

Our own notion is that youth is far more level-headed than many of its disconsolate spokesmen believe. It realizes that only by revolution can fundamental and sweeping changes in the political, economic and social structure be brought about, and it is not revolutionary because it has no plan for such changes.

It looks abroad. It sees the communist revolution in Russia, and doesn't care for it because it is not applicable to America's problems. It sees the fascist revolution in Italy, and does not like it because it is the antithesis of that democracy which is essential of American thought and American life. It has examined socialism for years, and has turned away from it. What other is there that has an appeal? Not one. Obviously, never rebuilding there is must be done on long-established, familiar foundations. Equally obviously, rebuilding must be done.

Problem of the young men, therefore, is largely in each in his place. The best he can do is to take over a key municipal, state government, in commerce, in industry, he must determine for the structure of the future. There is a world of work for him to follow.

JUST FOLKS

THE FARM HAND
I watched him in the blazing field,
Harrowing for September's yield,
A rugged lad in denim jeans,
A subject fit for pastoral scenes,
Which would have caught the careful eye.

Of any artist passing by,
No mercy showed the blazing sun,
I watched the heat waves roll and run
Across the land, baked hard and brown,
And wondered if fine folks in town,
bread,
Have any notion how they're fed.

So white and delicate and fair
It comes to table everywhere
That only farming people know
What suffering brings the wheat to grow,
And only country boys can tell
The toll that makes the soil do well.

Next winter when I sit to dine
Where silverware and glasses
glisten
And bread is passed, in fancy I
Will see, beneath a cloudless sky,
That boy enduring cruel heat,
All day within a field of wheat.

ECONOMY LEAGUE

Many who have seen congress succumb time and time again to the pressure of organized lobbies for special interests have pleaded for a people's lobby to look out for the interests of the Nation. Something of the sort — only it is not and will not be a lobby — has now been organized. It is called the National Economy League, and it is sponsored by some of our finest citizens.

Rear Admiral Byrd postpones his second trip to the South Pole to head the organization. Archie Roosevelt becomes secretary of its advisory committee. The council is headed by Calvin Coolidge, and also includes Alfred E. Smith, Elihu Root, Newton D. Baker, Gen. Pershing and Admiral Sims.

The National Economy League grew out of a protest movement of war veterans against paying pensions and relief to the soldiers who suffered no disability in the war. When a petition signed by nearly a half million people brought no response from congress, the prime movers went into action on a more impressive scale. The new organization now launched is the result. Its first aim is to cut about $450,000,000 from the government's pension bill. It also plans to watch municipal, county and state budgets as well as that of the nation, and to fight carelessness and extravagance all along the line.

But the National Economy League should not limit itself to one self-imposed task. It will have many other jobs on its hands if it is to create a back-fire against the special-interest lobbies burning around the government. And when hundreds and thousands of special interests are involved, it will have to watch carefully its own membership, its own governors, lest the interests it is organized to fight gain control of its organization.

However, the League starts well, with a council which includes honored men of both parties and both services, men of great knowledge and wide experience, patriots all. Under such auspices its prospects are bright.

IMMEDIATE TAXATION RETRENCHMENT IS ESSENTIAL

In a recent address, a prominent American said: "By borrowing to cover our current governmental expenses  we drain the capital of the country into public securities and draft it away from industry and commerce."

In 1913 cost of government was about $1 for every $15 of national income. It is now $1 for every $5. For every federal income tax payer there are one and one quarter persons whose source of income is the government.

The regeneration of the economic life of this country largely depends on decisive immediate governmental retrenchment.

Who said this is a do-nothing administration? Hasn't Secretary Mellon been resigning from something for the last 12 years, and Senator Borah bolting the party for at least a dozen years?

never was. And in spite of the shouters for a new and immediately better order of things, sensible men know and there it

"Who is the Guy in the Rough?"

---By Clive Weed

"EXPECT THE UN-EXPECTED."

"Use your horn; that's what it's there for," is the advice of an experienced driver to motorists in an effort to prevent automobile accidents. He urges them not to steal up from behind people without some signal of this kind. They are to use it whenever the slightest occasion demands it.

But they should also be urged to use their heads, and what is supposed to be in them. They should give evidence also of some consideration for the rights of others on the road; they should keep in mind that public highways are not private lanes, and that someone is always likely to drive into their path from some side street or road.

There are many things which motorists must keep in mind if automobile accidents are to be averted. In the speech of the motorist there ought to be no such word as "unexpected." The unexpected is the very thing they ought to be expecting. It ought to be as clear as day and as inevitable as winter's snow to all of us that driving a motor car is no child's play; it ought to be done only by painstaking and responsible persons, able and willing always to give their most serious attention to the business in hand.

MORE UNINFLATED MONEY

Though the Glass currency expansion rider to the home loan law promises to increase the currency in circulation by a billion dollars within three years it is not what is called an inflationary measure.

The new banknotes will be as good as gold. Issued against government bonds, they will have the support of a government stabilized by a balanced budget and will be accepted everywhere at their face value. There is no intent to keep the printing presses running until currency is as plentiful as debts.

Another billion in paper money will increase the money supply of the banks and tend to step up commodity prices at a time when the banks are ultra-cautious and prices too low.

Though the Glass rider has to a large extent overshadowed the principal provisions of the home loan law, that does not necessarily mean that the rider is the saving grace of the law. It is important that government funds are to find new construction and refinance old construction and that the financial institutions now carrying the load may

YEARNINGS AND EARNINGS.

The safest rule of thrift and economy—and therefore of practical business—is to keep the yearnings within the earnings. This applies not only to the individual's income and expenditures, but to the business concern and government, whether state or municipal or national as well.

A man who makes a dollar a day and saves a quarter is a better financial risk than one who makes 20 dollars a day and spends 25.

And the individual or concern which guards the expenditures so they are always within the income is more times than not the man or the concern that steadily increases the income. Niggardiness and parsimony is absent from real economy. It is generally good business to expend liberally rather than in a niggardly manner.

Thrift is not in denying the expenditures which must be made if there is to be development and healthy growth. The elimination of waste, the careful inspection of expenditures to locate leaks, the system that knows where the money goes and that it gets value in return—that is the principle of economics which always accompanies the ability to increase steadily the sources of income.

WHAT CONFIDENCE DOES.

There is money in this country. There is money for investment. If anyone doubts that, let him scan the report of the success of the federal government's latest marketing of treasury notes.

These notes bear but 3-1-2 per cent interest. But they are attractive to investors. The government offered them to the amount of $325,000,000. And subscriptions totaled 12 times that amount. That is, investors came forward with the huge sum of $3,803,000,000.

What was the special characteristic of those notes that made them so saleable? They inspired confidence. The public wanted them because it had confidence in them. The deal proves what can be brought about in this country when confidence is restored. One of these days things are going to start, and then, watch out.

Statistics would doubtless show that congress now writes as many beer bills in a session as the bookkeepers of a fairly large brewery used to in a summer.

release their funds for the construction of new homes. The law will ease the credit situation all along the line.

GOVERNOR STERLING

SAYS LAWMAKERS TO HEAR BOND PROPOSAL

TELLS VERNON AUDIENCE WILL ATTEMPT HAVE STATE ASSUME INDEBTEDNESS

VERNON, Aug. 16.—(P)

—Governor R. S. Sterling will issue a proclamation tomorrow calling a special session of the legislature to meet on September 5, "or earlier," to hear his proposal for the state to assume county highway bonds, he told a Vernon audience today.

In his address here the governor outlined his plans to have one cent of the gasoline tax set aside to pay off bonds, which counties have voted to pave their roads. He said it was in line with his contention for years that counties should not be asked to place a burden upon themselves in order to have good highways, but that those who use the roads should pay for them.

Texapayers in every county in Texas where the roads are paved are having to pay from 19 cents to $3 on the hundred dollars valuation to keep up the interest and sinking funds on their bonds," Sterling said. "If with me saving of $20 or $25 a year to the average home owner in the state, or approximately $1,000 for the life of the bond, his plan was to provide immediate relief by removing the taxes from the counties this year.

Governor Sterling was studying the proclamation today. He said it would be couched in language that would make it impossible for the legislature "to twist the interpretation about and throw the session open for a lot of immaterial issues."

In calling the session prior to the state democratic convention at Lubbock September 15, he said he would expect the lawmakers to pass on his program before leaving for the convention.

Sterling's itinerary today was to carry him to Chillicothe, Va., on Electric, Iowa Park, Henrietta, Bowie, Alford, Decatur and to Denton tonight.

Mrs. Sterling, who will speak at Wichita Falls tonight, was to meet the governor at Henrietta. Rain pursued the governor again today, but paved highways made it possible for him to keep up with his heavy schedule.

ENDURANCE.

The deed of endurance determination can always win the admiration and applause of men, for in it is revealed a quality heedful in every man's life story. To be skillful or shrewd or fortunate may be the privilege of the few, but to carry on against odds and to stick it out when weakness invites surrender is the sort of conduct that life asks of every man. Those who have watched the flying men make records of endurance have paid at last their principal tribute to the men and their courage rather than to machines and the skill that has kept them in the air. The final achievement is a triumph of human courage over the drag of physical necessities, a victory of the spirit over the world in which it lives.

Life itself is an endurance test, whose goal is uncertain and whose reward is in doubt. Few of us could surely determine its purpose or foresee its outcome. Yet with few exceptions, men take up its challenge, determined to do the difficult thing and the daring thing, despite the countless opportunities for surrender to ease and indifference that come to them. Refueled now and then with fresh hope and the comforting contact of friendly encouragement, they spend their strength to the limit to leave behind a record of achievement. This is the spirit that has lifted man from the dust of which he is made and given wings to his spirit. This makes him master of his world and of his own destiny.

CORN BORER AND ECONOMY.

Secretary Hyde, of the United States department of agriculture, announces that the department's road patrol instituted to control the spread of the European corn borer, will be discontinued. Thus an expensive experiment is given up and the savings this year will be about $500,000.

In spite of the fact that the government has spent millions of dollars in preventive measures, the corn borer has marched on. That he didn't travel much by automobile appears from the fact that his average progress has been only about 20 miles a year.

At any rate, that $500,000 saved is a very real bird in the hand and worried taxpayers will approve taking a chance on an occasional corn borer taking a motor trip unmolested by federal patrolmen.

CHEERFUL OUTLOOK ENCOUNTERED DURING VISIT TO NEW YORK

A distinctly more cheerful outlook was reported pervading eastern trade centers by M. E. Woodrow, vice-president and general manager of the Corsicana Cotton Mills, on his return from New York Monday.

Recent upturns in commodity and security prices have aided in the feeling of optimism. Mr. Woodrow, an unusual interest is being manifested in the higher prices of cotton, doubtless because it would increase the buying power of the south and southwest sections of the nation materially.

He reported that cotton goods had been among the first commodities to show a gain in price, and intense activity prevailed in the brokerage houses in cotton materials. Many of the houses specializing in high grade cotton prints have lowered their prices to become depleted and these supplies are now being re-established keeping many mills busy with orders, with an ever-increasing demand for the finer cotton fabrics.

Increased demand for all fabrics of cotton were reported and Mr. Woodrow stated that the Corsicana mill was operating five and a half days each week now and it was hoped that this plan of operation could be continued for sometime to come. He indicated that the plant had numerous orders that would keep the plant open for several weeks.

Mr. Woodrow asserted that eastern leaders were decidedly more optimistic of the future than they had been on his annual trips to New York for the past three years.

NATION'S LEADERS AGREE TO ATTEMPT UNEMPLOYMENT AID

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(P)—The nation's idle took a new grip on hope for relief today with the announcement that 55 of the country's leaders had agreed to serve on a committee to give aid to the unemployed.

Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, Secretary of Commerce Roy D. Chapin, Owen D. Young and Thomas W. Lamont were included in the group drafted to form the membership of the National Citizens' committee for the welfare and relief mobilization of 1932. Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker is chairman.

One of the first aims of the committee of 55 will be to unite and reinforce local social service organizations, seeking ways in readjusting their programs to fit the needs of their individual communities in addition to obtaining adequate funds to carry on their work.

The committee will sponsor a conference in Washington September 15, when community social service leaders will be invited to participate. President Hoover will open the conference at the White House.

BANKS OF COUNTY ALLOWED REDUCED TAXABLE VALUES

Banks of Navarro county were allowed a 25 per cent reduction in their renditions for taxes for this year at a meeting of the Navarro county commissioners' court Monday as a board of equalization. The banks allowed a 20 per cent reduction in tax renditions last year. Other corporations were also allowed reductions.

Prior to last year, banks were assessed at 50 per cent of the combined capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, with the 20 per cent reduction last year, it reduced the renditions to 40 per cent and with the 5 per cent reduction allowed Monday, the renditions now will be 30 per cent of the capital, surplus and undivided profits, a combined reduction of 40 per cent in renditions during the past two years.

Commissioner D. D. Sawyer of Precinct 3, Dawson, declined to vote for the measure, being "present but not voting." Sawyer previously had said he favored a 5 per cent reduction, bringing the reduction for the two years to 25 per cent and no more.

The bankers maintained they were entitled to this reduction as bank stock was personal property and should not be taxed higher than other properties taken at about 30 per cent of its value. The renditions of the Southern Ice and Utilities Company and the Southern Creameries were reduced 25 per cent. All voted for this measure.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR PIONEER THIS COUNTY TUESDAY

Funeral services for J. H. Calbreath, 50, pioneer resident of Navarro county, formerly county clerk, former postmaster of Frost, and prominent Mason, who died at his home, 2005 West Seventh avenue, Sunday night, will be held from the Cumberland Presbyterian church here Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with burial in Oakwood cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. R. Allen, pastor of the church and the Masons will have charge of the rites at the grave.

Mr. Calbreath was the first postmaster at Frost. He organized the Masonic lodge at old Cross Roads and later the lodge was transferred to Frost. He resided at Spring Hill and Dawson shortly after he came to Navarro county from Tennessee, 54 years ago. He served as county clerk from 1897 through 1900.

He had been in ill health for 21 years, although he was seriously ill only a few days. Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. C. L. Terry, Corsicana, and Mrs. F. Hines, Atlanta, Ga.; and two grandsons. Pallbearers will be Frank McCulston, Roy Thompson, Clay Nash, J. M. McDaniel, T. P. Kerr, F. A. Widmer, J. M. Kidd, Lloyd Kerr, H. Gorman, Dr. Z. Hodge and W. H. Deckard, all elders of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The funeral will be directed by the Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home.

Two Wounded By Shotgun Monday At Silver City

J. A. Chaney and his son, J. T. Chaney, both of the Silver City community, received shotgun wounds in an altercation Tuesday morning and Lloyd Brister is at liberty on bond in the sum of $250 on formal charges of aggravated assault filed in Judge J. L. Cox's court.

Deputy Sheriff J. M. Westbrook answered the call. Five shots were fired from a shotgun, four taking effect. The wounds are not serious. An altercation was reported to have ensued Monday.

RAIL RENDITIONS TWO CARRIERS OF COUNTY REDUCED

BURLINGTON-ROCK ISLAND,
SOUTHERN PACIFIC HEARD;
COTTON BELT LATER

Two railroad companies operating through Navarro county appeared before the Navarro county commissioners court Wednesday to have their lines reduced to tax matters. The court is sitting as a board of equalization. Reductions were made for the Burlington and Rock Island Lines (formerly the T. and B. V. R. R. Co.) and the H. and T. C. R. R. Co. The St. Louis-Southwestern Railway Company of Texas (Cotton Belt) did not appear but will have a representative before the court at a later date, it was announced.

Commissioner W. D. Sawyer of Precinct 3, Dawson, was not present at Wednesday's session. The Burlington and Rock Island Lines reduction for this year were reduced from $9,500 to $8,000 per mile. Commissioner J. O. Sessions voted against the measure. Commissioners George W. Boyd and Harry A. County Judge Clay Nash voted for the reduction.

The main line of the H. and T. C. was reduced from $13,000 per mile to $10,800. One section of the tracks to the rock quarry near Richland was reduced from $3,000 to $2,500 per mile and another section was reduced from $1,500 to $1,250 per mile. The H. and T. C. reduction survey was reduced from $1,180 to $960; and two tracts of 188.17 and 64.47 acres of the William Hamilton and John Hamilton surveys was reduced from $7,850 to $6,450. Commissioners Sessions voted for the reduction on the lands but against the reduction of the railroad mileage of the H. and T. C. Commissioners Boyd and Harry A. County Judge Nash voted for the reductions.

RED CROSS ISSUES APPEAL FOR FUNDS RESULT HURRICANE

Officials of the Navarro county chapter of the American Red Cross have received from the national organization an appeal for contributions for relief of the Texas hurricane sufferers in the Gulf coast area and citizens of Corsicana and Navarro county are urged to respond to this call, the recent hurricane leaving distress which the Red Cross investigating officials consider a major relief problem, thus the urgent call for funds. The communication from the Red Cross headquarters states that representatives surveying the hurricane destruction area in Brazoria, Fort Bend, Matagorda and Wharton counties report that the situation requires organization of major relief by the Red Cross, and the need of funds is stressed, the local chapter being urged to immediately make an appeal for public contributions to the relief of the stricken peoples of the hurricane area, where many are dead and injured and thousands are homeless with every vestige of their crops for this year destroyed. Contributions to this fund are appealed for by the local organization, Mrs. R. B. Mitchell, executive secretary, who is in complete charge in the absence of the county chairman, the Rev. H. J. Ellis, stated Thursday morning and such contributions will be received at the Dallas Sun office and taken in charge by Royce Martin to be turned over to the local Red Cross officials, who will forward them to the Southwestern headquarters in St. Louis at once.

Dalhart Chamber Is After Designation

DALHART, Aug. 18.—(P)—The Dalhart Chamber of Commerce is planning to send two men to Sam Hawke, highway commission chairman, at Oklahoma City, to urge designation of Highway 41. Efforts are being made to get two men from Cimarron county, Okla., to accompany them. Texas will designate the road if Oklahoma will, according to agreement. The road runs from Oklahoma City through Pampa, Texas, to Dalhart and thence north to Boise City, Okla.

FERGUSON RETURNS TO STUMP TODAY IN BEHALF OF HIS WIFE

AUSTIN, Aug. 18.—(P)—Former Gov. James E. Ferguson returned to the hustings today in furtherance of the gubernatorial campaign of Mrs. Mitiam A. Ferguson, his ex-governor wife. Mrs. Ferguson stayed at home, leaving all speaking time on this next to the last trip before the run-off primary to her husband. Ferguson planned to appear at Port Arthur tonight at Anderson, Grimes county, tomorrow night and at Groesbeck, Limestone county, Saturday night.

Ferguson dates for the windup week of the campaign were: Dallas, Tuesday night, Aug. 23; Athens, Wednesday night, Aug. 24; Denton, Thursday night, Aug. 25; and Greenville, Friday, Aug. 26. Gov. R. S. Sterling, run-off opponent of the Fergusons, was spending today at his Dallas headquarters. He was expected to announce a speaking itinerary for the rest of the campaign. Also he was studying a proclamation calling the legislature into extraordinary session to consider tax relief measures. It was likely to be promulgated the call today and he had indicated he would fix Sept. 5 as the day for the legislators to convene.

Cleburne to Honor Man For Whom County Was Named

CLEBURNE, Aug. 18.—(P)—The memory of Col. Middleton Johnson, soldier and statesman, for whom Johnson county was named, will be perpetuated by the Johnson County Pioneers and Old Settlers association. A committee of Dr. C. A. Schultze, Mrs. J. B. Campbell and Walter Murphey, Alvarado has been named to either erect a monument over the grave of Col. Johnson at Johnson station near Mansfield in Tarrant county, or have the remains disinterred and taken to Austin for burial in the state cemetery.

Col. Johnson organized a Texas regiment to fight in the war with Mexico under Gen. Zachary Taylor. He served in the Civil War and he was a leader of Rangers in frontier defense.

BEAUMONT, Aug. 18.—(P)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt may come to Beaumont for the formal dedication of its new airport, recently finished at a cost of approximately $100,000.

Replying to an invitation sent the democratic candidate for the presidency, James A. Farley, chairman of the democratic national committee, said, "Be assured that I will do everything possible to have Governor Roosevelt there for the dedication."

A plane will be placed at his disposal on any occasion he wishes to come south, it was announced by President Cohn of the American Airways.

Final decision of Governor Roosevelt largely will determine the date of the dedication ceremony. The new airport has been accepted by the city and is in use. Dedication plans are going forward.

JOUETT SHOUSE HAS NEW JOB TO BRING ABOUT RATIFICATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—(P)—Jouett Shouse has been selected by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment to lead what the chairman of its executive committee calls a drive "to bring about promptly the ratification of the new amendment which congress will submit."

Pierre S. Du Pont, the chairman, announced Shouse's appointment as president in a letter to directors of the association. Shouse, recently chairman of the democratic national committee, succeeds Henry H. Curran, who will become vice chairman of the directors of the association.

Du Pont said that because of a "marked change in public sentiment" the association must do "a somewhat different character of work."

That, he said, will be to try "to draw together all of those who feel that the Eighteenth Amendment does not belong in the constitution and that the only wise solution for the vexed liquor problem is to return control to the states without attempting such restrictions, no matter how desirable their purpose, as to introduce new complications into the situation."

Shouse said in a statement that affairs of the association in the last several years had been handled "with intelligence, discretion and skill" but that "a constructive opportunity of large possibilities now awaits" it.

Cone Johnson Says Many Illegal Votes Cast First Primary

DALLAS, Aug. 18.—(P)—Charges that approximately 100,000 illegal ballots had been cast in the recent democratic primary were contained today in a statement by Cone Johnson of Tyler, member of the Texas highway commission.

Declaring that fraud had been practiced, Johnson asserted the fairness and integrity of the democratic primaries had been menaced seriously and many candidates possibly had been unfairly eliminated from the run-off primary.

He based the charges on statistics which he said revealed that in many counties more ballots had been cast than poll taxes had been paid.

"Back To The Farm"

It has long been recognized that the only permanent solution for a great many of our present economic difficulties is to reverse the trend of population which has been flowing from FARM to CITY—away from the City and back to the farm. That such a reversal of trend has set in is indicated by

Small Acreage Demand

The desire of the average migrator is to feed himself and family rather than to produce for the market, so if you care to sell your small farm, or a part of a large farm in small tracts, consult me at once. I find a market and demand for such, and if on highway, distance won't make a great deal of difference, as it comes cheaper. No doubt loan companies would consent for you to sell a part, if applied on loan.

I Have a Buyer

With the cash to pay for a small farm, if close to school and good land and improvements, and priced for CASH. Let me know at once what you have to offer anywhere in the county. Nothing to be gained by waiting, so write me, if you can't come in by the 20th, or we might lose a good opportunity to get the CASH.

The New Home Loan Banks are expected to be set up and functioning soon, which should help financing homes, and now is the time to tell people in the right way what you have to sell, and I'll advertise it without cost to you and no charge if sale is not effected.

Come and talk it over! My office with the Navarro County Abstract Co., 507 State National Bank Building.

PARKER IS NAMED HEAD CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE HERE

Hon. W. T. Parker, of Corsicana has accepted appointment as county chairman of the Texas Centennial committee for Navarro county and will as an early date complete county and precinct organization for a campaign to acquaint voters with the pending Centennial constitutional amendment. The county committee will appoint chairmen for every precinct in the county.

The State constitution as originally framed made no provision for State support of a Centennial celebration and the amendment would authorize the legislature to appropriate funds for assisting in such a celebration in 1936, but especially provides that it shall not apply to any other exposition or celebration of any kind.

The committee believes that all that will be necessary to secure an overwhelming majority for the Centennial amendment will be to inform voters as to its purpose and that with attention properly directed to it, every patriotic Texan will favor a creditable celebration of a kind to reflect the heroic sacrifices of the founders of the state, the resplendent achievements of the first century and the wonderful possibilities for the future.

Mr. Parker will have the assistance of some prominent Navarro county woman, to be selected and announced later, who will serve as co-chairman for the county and have special charge of the Centennial activities among the women.

Smaller Pigs Are Sent Markets Now, Insure More Profit

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—(P)—This little pig went to market used to be just a nursery rhyme. But little pigs are going to the market now. In fact they are littler than ever before.

The authority for this is E. W. Sheets, head of the bureau of animal industries of the department of agriculture.

"When I was a boy" he said to representatives of the meat industry yesterday, "hogs used to be grown until they were very large. They weren't put on the market until the were two or three years old. As a result they were tough. Now, stock growers have learned hogs can be finished for market in six or eight months. They taste much better and offer a greater profit."

Monster Ear of Corn Grown Near Streetman Shown

An ear of corn, 12 inches long, that shelled 1084 grains, was exhibited in Streetman Wednesday by W. E. Milner, who plans to harvest 12,000 bushels of corn this year.

The corn is the Chisholm variety and is unusually well developed. W. M. Keene, also of Streetman, has 80 acres of the same kind of corn, and also plans to harvest a bumper crop.

RULES FOR HAIR TRIMMING

Shaping Your Head

If you have a hair dresser who really knows how to shape your head, you may consider yourself lucky. All barbers exhibit large diplomas from colleges, but it does not follow that they have natural taste, or hair cutting.

A surprising number of barbers, even those employed in the best of the beauty shops, trim the patrons' hair with a complete disregard of the lines of the head and the neck. There is nothing to make you look well from in back, except the manner in which your hair is cut, and the smooth and nicely cared for appearance of your hair. You may have to experiment with a dozen different barbers, perhaps, before you find the one who understands your type. Meantime, a few general rules may be a good guide for you.

Look at yourself from the back. Now, your neck is short, thin and long or fat and short, thin and long. The hair should be cut so it is quite perfect. Your head is either round or long. And your object is to lengthen a short neck, narrow a fat one, etc. You can let your hair grow so long that it covers up most of the neck. Provided the hair is well waved, that is a good solution. Or, with a short back, you can keep the hair trimmed rather high off the neck, adding to its apparent length, and thereby making it seem more slender. The hair should also be trimmed to point in back, which adds slenderness, and if waved, the waves should go slantwise across the back, and not straight. If the hair is both long and fat, the hair should be trimmed lower down, and to a point as well, and any waving should be on the slant as before.

The thin neck looks best if the hair line in back is rounded and not pointed, and it looks even better. If the hair ends in a lot of little curls, if the head is too thin, it will be better if the hair is shaggy, and covers up the ears so they do not show in back. Loose waves, running straight across, are sometimes more becoming than the slanting wave, but you must experiment with this.
